

U.S. Estimated Tax for Nonresident Alien Individuals*2001*Purpose of This Package

If you are a nonresident alien, use this package to figure and pay your estimated tax. Estimated tax is the method used to pay tax on income that is not subject to withholding.

Do not use the payment vouchers in this package to notify the IRS of a change of address. Instead, use Form 8822, Change of Address.

You can order Form 8822 and other forms and publications by writing to the Eastern Area Distribution Center, P.O. Box 85074, Richmond, VA 23261-5074, USA. Or, if you have a computer and modem, you can access the IRS Web Site 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, at www.irs.gov. For file transfer protocol, connect to ftp.irs.gov.

Who Must Make Estimated Tax Payments

Generally, you must make estimated tax payments if you expect to owe at least $1,000 in tax for 2001 (after subtracting your withholding and credits) and you expect your withholding and credits to be less than the smaller of:

1. 90% of the tax on your 2001 tax return or
2. The tax shown on your 2000 tax return (110% of that amount if you are not a farmer or fisherman and the adjusted gross income shown on that return is more than $150,000 or, if married filing separately for 2001, more than $75,000).

However, if you did not file a 2000 tax return or that return did not cover all 12 months, item 2 above does not apply.

For this purpose, include household employment taxes (before subtracting advance EIC payments made to your employee(s)) when figuring the tax shown on your tax return if:

1. You will have Federal income tax withheld from wages, pensions, annuities, or other income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business or
2. You would be required to make estimated tax payments to avoid a penalty even if you did not include household employment taxes when figuring your estimated tax.

Changes Effective for 2001

Caution: Legislation enacted after December 8, 2000, may affect the computation of your 2001 tax. To find out if such legislation was enacted and for details on any changes, visit the IRS Web Site at www.irs.gov.

Use your 2000 tax return as a guide in figuring your 2001 estimated tax, but be sure to consider the changes noted in this section. For more information on changes that may affect your 2001 estimated tax, see Pub. 553, Highlights of 2000 Tax Changes.

Estimated tax safe harbor for some taxpayers. For 2001, the estimated tax safe harbor that is based on the tax shown on your 2000 tax return is 110% of that amount if you are not a farmer or fisherman and the adjusted gross income shown on that return is more than $150,000 or, if married filing separately for 2001, more than $75,000.

Student loan interest deduction. You may be able to deduct up to $2,500 of interest you pay during 2001 on a qualified student loan.

Standard mileage rate. The rate for business use of a vehicle has increased to 34½ cents a mile. The rate for use of your car to get medical care or for figuring deductible moving expenses has increased to 12 cents a mile.

IRA deduction allowed to more people covered by retirement plans. You may be able to take an IRA deduction for 2001 if you are covered by a retirement plan and your 2001 modified AGI is less than $43,000 if single or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 2001; or $63,000 if qualifying widow(er).

Section 179 expense deduction. Generally, the maximum deduction to expense certain property under section 179 for 2001 is $24,000.

Lower capital gains tax rate. For 2001, gains on assets held more than 5 years are taxed at 8% to the extent the gains would have otherwise been taxed at 10%.

Election to recognize gain on certain assets held on January 1, 2001. You may elect to treat certain assets held on January 1, 2001, as having been sold and then reacquired on the same date. The purpose of the election is to make future gain on the asset eligible for a capital gains tax rate of 18% instead of 20% if the asset is held more than 5 years. Only gains that would otherwise be taxed at 20% on assets acquired after December 31, 2000, or that you are electing to treat as having been reacquired after that date, are eligible for the 18% rate. For details on how to make the election, see Pub. 553.

Research credit. A special rule applies when figuring your research credit for estimated tax purposes. The credit attributable to the second suspension period (defined below) cannot be used to reduce any estimated tax payments due before October 1, 2001. Instead, it is allowed as if it were an installment payment made on October 1, 2001.

For the 2001 tax year, the second suspension period begins January 1 and ends September 30, 2001. The credit attributable to the suspension period generally is figured by multiplying the total research credit for the tax year by the ratio of (a) the number of months in the suspension period that are included in the tax year to (b) the number of months in the tax year. For the 2001 tax year, 75% of the research credit generally is attributable to the second suspension period. See Form 6765, Credit for Increasing Research Activities, for more details.

To Figure Your Estimated Tax, Use:

- The 2001 Estimated Tax Worksheet on page 3.
- The instructions below for the worksheet on page 3.
- The 2001 Tax Rate Schedules on page 4 for your filing status.*
- Your 2000 tax return and instructions as a guide to figuring your income, deductions, and credits (but be sure to consider the changes noted earlier).

If you receive your income unevenly throughout the year (for example, because you operate your business on a seasonal basis), you may be able to lower or eliminate the amount of your required estimated tax payment for one or more periods by using the annualized income installment method. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, for details.

*If you are married, you must generally use Tax Rate Schedule Y. For exceptions, see Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Line 8. Include on this line the additional taxes from Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions, or Form 8814, Parents' Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends.

Line 9. Credits. See the 2000 Form 1040NR, lines 42 through 46, and the related instructions. However, be sure to consider the special rule for the research credit noted earlier.

Line 11. Other Taxes. Except as noted below, enter any other taxes, such as the taxes on accumulation distribution of trusts, distributions from an MSA, and early distributions from (a) an IRA or other qualified retirement plan, (b) an annuity, or (c) a modified endowment contract entered into after June 20, 1988.

Include household employment taxes (before subtracting advance EIC payments made to your employee(s)) on line 11 if:

- You will have Federal income tax withheld from wages, pensions, annuities, or other income effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business or
- You would be required to make estimated tax payments (to avoid a penalty) even if you did not include household employment taxes when figuring your estimated tax.

Do not include tax on recapture of a Federal mortgage subsidy, social security and Medicare tax on unreported tip income, or uncollected employee social security and Medicare or RRTA tax on tips or group-term life insurance. These taxes are not required to be paid until the due date of your income tax return (not including extensions).

Payment Due Dates

If you have wages subject to U.S. income tax withholding, you may pay all of your estimated tax by April 16, 2001, or in four equal amounts by the dates shown below.

- 1st payment April 16, 2001
- 2nd payment June 15, 2001
- 3rd payment Sept. 17, 2001
- 4th payment Jan. 15, 2002*

If you do not have wages subject to U.S. income tax withholding, you may pay all of your estimated tax by June 15, 2001, or you may pay it in three installments. If you pay the tax in installments, 1/2 is due by June 15, 2001, 1/4 is due by September 17, 2001, and 1/4 by January 15, 2002.*

*You do not have to make the payment due January 15, 2002, if you file your 2001 Form 1040NR or 1040NR-EZ by January 31, 2002, and pay the entire balance due with your return.

We do not send notices reminding you to make your estimated tax payments. You must make each payment by the due date.

Even if you are not required to make an estimated tax payment by the first payment due date, you may meet the requirements to make estimated tax payments later. In this case, you should figure the amount of your estimated tax payments by using the annualized income installment method, explained in Pub. 505. Although your payment due dates will be the same, the payment amounts will vary based on your income, deductions, additional taxes, and credits for the months ending before each payment due date. As a result, this method may allow you to skip or lower the amount due for one or more payments. If you use the annualized income installment method, be sure to file Form 2210, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals, Estates, and Trusts, with your 2001 tax return, even if no penalty is owed.

Fiscal year taxpayers. Due dates for fiscal year taxpayers are the 15th day of the 4th (if applicable), 6th, and 9th months of your current fiscal year, and the 1st month of the following fiscal year. If any date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, use the next business day.

Name Change

If you changed your name and made estimated tax payments using your old name, attach a statement to the front of your 2001 income tax return. List all of the estimated tax payments you made for 2001, the address where you made the payments, and the name and identifying number under which you made the payments.

Amending Estimated Tax Payments

To change or amend your estimated tax payments, refigure your total estimated tax payments due (line 18 of the worksheet on page 3). Then, use the worksheets under Amended estimated tax in Pub. 505 to figure the payment due for each remaining payment period. If an estimated tax payment for a previous period is less than 1/4 of your amended estimated tax, you may owe a penalty when you file your return.

When a Penalty Is Applied

In some cases, you may owe a penalty when you file your return. The penalty is imposed on each underpayment for the number of days it remains unpaid. A penalty may be applied if you did not pay enough estimated tax for the year, or you did not make the payments on time or in the required amount. A penalty may apply even if you have an overpayment on your tax return. The penalty may be waived under certain conditions. See Pub. 505 for details.
